ONLY 1 ANGLICAN VOTE AGAINST CHURCH UNION

Hamilton, Oct. 15.—With a solitary dissenting vote the lower house of the Anglican general synod last Wednesday afternoon concurred with the bishops in their acceptance of the Lambeth appeal on unity to appoint a committee with other churches on church union. The vote came only after a debate extending over portions of three days. By this action the Church of England in Canada for the first time officially stigmatized its willingness to consult with other denominations as to the possibility of coming to some agreement that may make union possible.

PALPITATION OF THE HEART SINKING SENSATIONS.

Palpitation of the heart is very often accompanied by sinking sensations and weak, faint and dizzy spells, and you can rid yourself of the trouble if it is of considerable importance that the heart should be strengthened and brought back to its regular beat.

MILBURN'S

are just the remedy you require to do this.

Mrs. Chadwick, Delhi, Ont., writes:—

"I had palpitation of the heart, and the least exertion, such as going up stairs, or up a hill, my heart would beat like a trip hammer and at times I was dragged head and had a sinking sensation as if my time was near. A friend suggested I try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, as I procured three boxes, and by the first box I felt a little better, and by the second box I felt a great deal better, and by the third box I felt like a young girl, no dizziness or fainting, and can walk miles without fatigue. All time of sickness I weighed 120 lbs, now I weigh 150."

EDMONTON FARMERS REPLY TO CRITICS

Edmonton, Oct. 15.—The west Edmonton A.M.F. convention has replied to attacks which have been made upon the principles of their organization by incorporating the principle of economic group representation in their federal platform as an addition to the platform made the Canadian Council of Agriculture. This principle was endorsed by the annual provincial convention of the A.M.F. two years ago, and forms the basis of all the activities of the organization, economic and political. Recently, however, some former Liberals who have made unsuccessful bids for the farmers' votes have bitterly attacked the U.P.A. and the farmers have answered these attacks at a meeting in Edmonton on Tuesday last some local Liberals went further in their denunciation of the A.M.F. organization than did Premier Stephen himself in the speech of over a year ago, in which he described the farmers as the "associates of revolutionaries and sedition." These attacks have aroused keen resentment among the farmers.

ALMOST PURE IRON WAS DISCOVERED NEAR ATHABASCA

Edmonton, Oct. 15.—The Bulletin recently carried the following story of another mineral find of the north: "A whole valley of almost pure iron lying on the shores of Lake Athabasca, with deep water rights to the claim has been discovered in the north by Norman C. Butterfield and E. A. Butterfield. Analysis shows that it is 64.36 pure iron. 154 million tons in the shape of loose blocks is lying on the surface of the ground close to the lake ready for shipping without any mining operations being necessary. The iron was discovered in the north by Mr. Butterfield and his sons, the finding being purely accidental. They had gone to Fond du Lac on the east end of the lake, at the time when this district was the scene of a big stampede for nickel. Returning, their canoe was forced ashore on the rocky rim of an ice pack, and where they landed the beach was covered with the iron ore, the discovery of which is now given to the public for the first time.

Careful measurements were taken of the claims and maps made. The steel tape was run over the outcropping iron ore, and on a computation it was found that at least there is 154 million tons available, but this figure, it is said, will be exceeded when operation of the ore is commenced. In addition, vast quantities of the ore is lying loose on the ground, and all that is required is to remove it to the water front and ship it to the smelter. The Butterfields for the last 16 years have been residents of the Edmonton district, and in addition to the present find, discovered a vast deposit of coking coal in the northern province for the prohibition victory at the polls on October 23rd, 1920.

MR. L. E. MARTIN SAYS ALBERTA BEST

L. E. Martin has visited during the past few months in many of the Western States and in several provinces. He says that conditions are better here than anywhere else he has been and that he believes, looking to the future, farming conditions and general business will return to a solid normal basis sooner here than anywhere else in the world.

Mr. Martin has some interesting things to tell of conditions in the Western States. At Long Beach and other coast towns half the population has disappeared. The farms which the people thought they had sold have been thrown back on their hands. The same is true of houses and other properties and conditions could hardly be worse in Canada.

Old Times in Western Canada

To get first-hand knowledge of the Riel Rebellion and the results which followed its suppression, a party of French Journalists and other visitors arrived at Quebec in July, 1886. They were the first French Journalists to visit Canada after Confederation.

After spending a few days in the historic city they went to Montreal where they were entertained by many French-Canadian Societies.

Leaving Montreal they travelled over the Canadian Pacific Railway lines to Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan, where the women of the party remained while the Journalists journeyed to the scene of the rebellion, the Riel Rebellion. They visited Batouche, Cut-Knife Hill, Frenchman's Butte, and other places. They travelled by methods of transportation used by the pioneers of the West, consisting for the most part of ox-carts.

Returning to Manitoba, the Journalists visited Stony Mountain Penitentiary, where Poundmaker was brought from his cell and placed in the middle of the group. Colonel Samuel Lawrence Nelson, warden of the penitentiary, stood behind Poundmaker, holding the chain which was attached to Poundmaker's wrist.

Poundmaker was one of the most interesting prisoners ever imprisoned at the penitentiary. He was the only prisoner who was allowed to wear his hair long while serving a sentence.

Journalism and literature were not of a high standard when the French Journalists visited the West. The early settlers had almost no attention to their activities in the Atlantic Ocean to France.

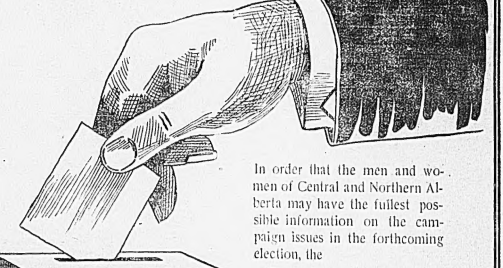

The Journalists gathered what data they could regarding journalistic achievements in Western Canada. These facts were given to them by William F. Laxton, editor of the Manitoba Free Press, and the dean of newspapermen in the West. The Free Press was established in 1872, and it had grown to be a political power in Canada. It championed the cause of the Liberal party.

The Nor' Wester, which was the pioneer newspaper of the West, carried the only news the settlers read in the earlier days. It flourished for several years, and "died" shortly after the suppression of the Riel Rebellion. The Manitoban, and the New Leader both had short lives. They were followed by The Metis, a French newspaper. It also met an early death. The fate of The Metis interested the visiting French Journalists, who secured copies of it to take back to France.

The Journalists then went to Toronto, then to Montreal, then to Quebec over the Canadian Pacific Railway line, embarking on a steamer at Quebec for the voyage down the St. Lawrence River and across the Atlantic Ocean to France.

Linen Industry in Canada

Dominion Linens, Ltd., Maudling and Ironing Department, showing Callenders, Hydraclic Mangles, Folding and Measuring Machines. Total floor space about half acre.

The linen industry was initiated in Canada in 1902 by Mr. William Berry, now Vice-President of the Dominion Linens Limited, Guelph, Ontario. Previous to this time, however, there had been several attempts at linen manufacture, and mills established in different parts of Canada, but all had resulted in failure. From the earliest period of human history till almost the close of the eighteenth century, linen manufacture was one of the most extensive and widely disseminated of the domestic industries of European countries. It was most largely developed in Russia, Austria, Germany, Holland, Belgium, Northern France, certain parts of England, the North of Ireland and throughout Scotland. In the latter part of the eighteenth century the invention of cotton spinning machinery gave the linen weaving industry a fatal blow. Domestic spinning and weaving began to shrink and with it hand loom weaving. In 1815, at Darlington, England, a machine was invented, which after many improvements and modifications has become the perfect system of machinery with which the present day linen spinning mills are on their imported yarns to keep their plants in operation. In the year 1913, it is estimated that Russia produced about 400,000 tons of flax, and other European countries, including Great Britain and Ireland, 100,000 tons. With the complete collapse of Russia in 1918, it became evident that if the linen business was to be continued in Canada, it would be necessary to establish a spinning plant here, to spin the Canadian grown flax, which with the improved methods of cultivation, were proven equal to or better than the Russian flax, on which the industry had relied previous to the war. A modern flax spinning plant, which would complete the chain of linen manufacturers and make the business a purely Canadian one has been installed at Guelph and is now in full running order. This plant has been equipped with the latest modern dry and wet spinning systems. To secure the highest quality of linen yarn, workers were brought from Belgium, where the flax, which were experienced in water retting flax, similar to the finest Flemish and Belgian flax which are used for producing the highest grade linens.

D. W. WARNER, U.F.A. CANDIDATE, FARMER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

The selection of D. W. Warner, of Clover Bar by the United Farmers of Saskatchewan Federal constituency confers the honor on a man who has been intimately associated with the agriculture of the province for the past twenty-five years. His nomination was secured at the hands of the men of his community and of his own local organization of the U.F.A.

Mr. Warner's career in the chosen profession is well known to his friends of Edmonton and of the province, his gradual progress to his present position in the economic, business and political world is perhaps known only to himself and to a few intimate friends. The facts concerning his earlier career, which Mr. Warner was kind enough to discuss to a Bulletin representative briefly are as follows:

Mr. Warner was born on his father's farm near Richmond, Iowa, October 1875. Until ten years old he lived with his parents and by dint of hard work contributed to the humble resources of the family. His father was of English descent, the lineage going for ten generations. His mother was Pennsylvania Dutch and both parents were born in the United States. His

Sports on the Pacific Coast

There is no centre in the world where one can get such a variety of summer sports as in Vancouver, B.C. There are several excellent beaches for bathing, there are half a dozen different laws of public tennis-courts within the city limits; there are several golf-courses, baseball and lacrosse, polo-ground at Brighouse Park where recently the Vancouver team played teams from Kamloops and Calgary. Saturday afternoon nearly always find a couple of cricket matches being played at the beautiful grounds laid out at Brockton Point.

But the most popular of all amusements in Vancouver are motor launching and yachting. The harbor under the Vacht-club is dotted with pleasure boats of every size and build; motor-power boats from the little row-boat with an outboard motor (fixed inside it right up to the scale to the beautiful new launch from Seattle, 110 ft., built originally for a submarine chaser.

All the sailing boats turn out for the regatta held at various points along the coast. There are 16 "ketches," 10 feet boats of the "Cat boat" class, the "Sir Tom" and the "Spirit" of the "W" class, the "Alvira," a motor's afternoon.

But these are only a few of the hundreds of boats that dot the blue waters of Burrard Inlet or the more adventurous seas outside on a sunnier afternoon.

The man who "rubbers" in the race is sure to get off the track before the goal is reached.

WHEN WOMAN HITS THE TRAIL IN THE CANADIAN ROCKIES

The outdoor girl—and her name is legion—known almost as much about the trails, camps, mountains and fishing of the Canadian Pacific Rockies as men. Every summer Banff and Lake Louise are thronged with members of the fair sex who hit the trail to view the beauties of lakes and streams where the trout hide, climb mountains and camp for days near to Nature's heart. Safeguarded by expert guides they learn the forest streams, fish and shoot, while there are real Swiss guides from the Alps overseas to show the way to the summits of majestic mountains. When they climb and camp they wear riling breeches just as well as the brothers, husbands or sweethearts and nobody thinks anything about it — not even Mrs. Grady, because she has been wearing the shortest of short skirts herself to be in the mode. The war changed many things. It gave woman the vote and made breeches for women conventional. Beauty appeals to the outdoor girl, and she loves the Canadian Rockies which rise a mile or more above Lake Louise and Banff or cause they are unexcelled in beauty and majesty. The Alpine Club of Canada has many women members, the most expert of whom do not hesitate to acknowledge the conquest of any peak men have ascended. In 1900 Mount Assiniboine was ascended for the first time by Sir James Outram. Three years later Miss Gertrude Bonny, an English girl, was the first of her sex to reach the summit of this great peak, the "Bottle-neck" of the Canadian Rockies. Both were assisted by Swiss guides. Several made the ascent during the camp of the Alpine Club last summer.

COMPLETELY FREE OF CONSTIPATION

Tried for Years to Find Relief

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" GAVE IT

Chronic constipation or inefficient action of the bowels, is one of the great causes of disease. Some authorities even claim that Constipation cannot be permanently corrected. This is a great mistake, because here is the proof that constipation can be cured and the bowels made to act regularly and naturally.

YARMOUTH, N.S.

"For years, I was troubled with Constipation and had to take laxatives and purgatives all the time. If I neglected to take them, the bowels would refuse to do their work."

About two years ago, a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives," which I did. The first box helped me so much that I obtained further supplies of the remedy and continued the treatment. After using about eight boxes, my bowels were able to perform their particular function without aid.

"The relief in my case has been lasting, as up to date, I have never had any further trouble. I can recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' to all suffering at I did and I am sure they will derive equal benefit."

A. W. FRANKLIN.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all druggists at 50¢ a box, 6 for $2.50, total size 50¢, or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Nearly ten millions of dollars have been invested in provincial saving certificates since the starting of the scheme in May, 1917, and the net purchase during these years is at the present time about three and a half millions. During the last couple of months, the deposits have been lighter, and the withdrawals greater, due to the necessity of financing the harvest.

FEW SCHOLARS NOW WITHOUT SCHOOL CHANCE

Out of the four thousand school districts, or more properly speaking, schoolrooms in the province of Alberta, thirty-eight hundred are operating at the present time, according to the report of the department of education. However, the remaining four hundred are not actually open, for, in many cases, the pupils are going to an adjoining school, where there is a qualified teacher.

At present there are about 100 permits being used and another 100 under consideration. While the department finds that real progress is being made in maintaining the schools with properly qualified teachers, they are still forced to use many permit teachers. In fact with the biggest class in the provincial schools this year there has ever been, it is hardly likely that teachers from these schools will meet the needs of the province in this respect. All permits become out of date at the end of June and have to be renewed, and the permits that were granted to University students are out of date at the October first, so that at the present time most of the permits are being rejected.

In the burst out across the need for qualified teachers is being met by the application of married women, qualified teachers and resident in the district, asking for certificates under their new names, to teach in their own schools. In many cases these women are giving good service to the community, having the double interest of the school and their own community.

Apart from these, the supply of qualified teachers in the province is practically exhausted, according to the report of the department, and there have been a survey of the question.

BIG SHIPMENTS LIVESTOCK FROM ALBERTA TO U.S.

Large movements of livestock from Canada to the United States started last week, and it is expected that unless there is a bad break in the Chicago market, the movement will continue for some time. On October 3 the special reduction of 20 per cent on freight for cattle came into effect, and after allowing for the difference in exchange rates, about 0.5 per cent in favor of the shipper, the return is much better than on cattle shipped across the Atlantic.

Recent quotations show that the British market price for Canadian steers has dropped considerably and shippers greatly favor the Chicago market as the shrinkage is not so great when the cattle are shipped by rail on the shorter haul. As sales can be effected much more quickly it is considered another great advantage in favor of the U.S. market, although the sudden drop of Canadian cattle is feared, may depress the prices for a day or two.

ISSUE DIVORCES

AT THE RATE OF ONE EVERY DAY

Divorces were granted in the supreme civil court at Edmonton last night at the rate of over one per day. Eight in all were granted from the opening of the court on Tuesday morning till the adjournment Friday morning. Of this five wives were the plaintiffs. All the claims but one were undefended and in the defendant case the plaintiff's husband was successful, the wife losing her counterclaim.

ALBERTA AMATEUR HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

The Alberta Amateur Hockey Association will hold their annual meeting in Calgary on November 5. Every hockey club in the province should hold its organization meeting and appoint a delegate to this meeting. Groups will be formed in each of every district that wishes to enter and compete for provincial honors during the season of 1921-22, and will cover general, intermediate and junior series. The co-operation of every club is earnestly desired.

U.F.A. PRESIDENT CONCERNED OVER PRICE OF WHEAT

H. W. Wood, president of the United Farmers of Alberta, is much concerned with the slump that has taken place in the price of "street" wheat. "Street" wheat is what is hauled to the elevators by farmers in wagon loads. The present price is about 93 cents a bushel, compared with $1.15 exactly twelve months ago.

"Wheat," said the president of the U.F.A., in the course of an interview, was the only farm product in which there was any profit left; now that has disappeared entirely. This means that the purchasing power of farmers has been completely destroyed.

"The farmers of Canada," he continued, "represent approximately one-half of the consumers. What is going to be the result? The only solution I can see is in the situation that the sooner the collapse comes the sooner we will begin to rebuild, that's all."

Asked what he meant by the word "collapse," Mr. Wood said he referred to economic conditions and a resultant move to a basis where producers could sell to purchasers.

If the farmers cannot raise prices up to a level where they can continue to buy, the prices of articles to consumers will have to come down with in the reach of the farmers," he said. "In other words the producer and consumer are further apart today than they ever were; they have got to get closer together before (trade can again become normal). If unusually high prices to the consumer cannot be brought down within the farmer's reach, then we are very close to the collapse," he has mentioned.

Referring to the cattle situation, Mr. Wood stated that in 1912 he sold beef cheaper than it was selling today, but that he could buy more for one dollar then than he could now for three dollars.

MORE MEN THAN WOMEN HAVE APPENDICITIS

Medical reports show men are more subject to appendicitis, although many sudden cases occur among women. It can be guarded against by preventing intestinal infection. The intestinal caecum, Aden's sac, sits on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing all fecal, decaying matter which might cause infection. It brings out matter, never thought was in your system, and which may have been poisoning you for months. Aden's sac is EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach. The Northern Drug Co. 25

MILBURN'S Lava-Liver PILLS

Stimulate the sluggish liver, clean the four-toothed tongue, do away with the biliousness of the stomach gases, banish the bilious headaches, cause the floating spots before the eyes to disappear, and prevent constipation, jaundice, indigestion, water break and other ailments arising from a disordered condition of the liver and bowels.

Mr. John S. Cronin, Doucette, Sask., writes—"I was troubled with my liver and had severe bilious attacks, a friend advised me to take Milburn's Lava-Liver Pills, so I took two pills and I have no more bilious attacks."

THE BLACKWELL BOOT SHOP

Those who buy merchandise from a mail order house are moved, partly, whether they realize it or not, by that trait in their nature which prompts them to trust in the unknown rather than in that with which they are familiar. They are hoping, it may be unconsciously, that they will draw a prize. They do not know what they will get, for it is impossible for one to know what he is going to get when he orders merchandise from a catalogue. He is taking a chance on the unknown.

Buying merchandise from the local merchant, on the other hand, contains none of these elements of chance that enter into the dealings with the mail order house. When one buys a stove from the hardware store in his home town, he may get none of the thrills that come from taking a chance but he will get a stove that will last longer and keep him warmer than the one he might get from the mail order house and to the average individual these things are likely to be more important than the thrills.

Why a person will place his confidence in a stranger rather than a friend or will trust in the unknown rather than in that which is tangible, is hard to understand. But the mail order house does not pretend to know why it is so but it accepts conditions as it finds them and makes the most of the opportunities that they offer.

FRESHMEN GIVEN A PAINFUL WELCOME AT THE UNIVERSITY

Edmonton, Oct. 14.—Initiation day at the university of Alberta last Wednesday converted the campus into a veritable bedlam with all lectures postponed and fresh pranks ruling the day as two hundred and fifty new students were officially and painfully welcomed to the seat of learning. Of the new students a large number are from the province. Most of the freshmen from outside points are from Saskatchewan although there are also representatives from British Columbia, Manitoba, Ontario, and a couple from New Brunswick.

The girls decorated Convocation hall for the initiation and held it tight before the boys pulled off their stunts. For women students, this welcoming is a series of secret rights the mystery of which never has been beyond the Wampana Society. All that was known of the event by the public was the sight of 50 girls led into Convocation hall, which had been decorated, and their reappearance several hours later vastly changed.

Judging from external evidence, the "Wampana" society, which has been through a barrage of pain and fun, to say nothing of having walked through oceans of paint. There was no doubt but that they had been properly humbled, as the senior students had intended. But they emerged from the ordeal full fledged students and were permitted to march without the green lab and old stockings which they had been previously forced to wear.

The boys initiation was a much larger affair, and lasted for the whole of one day. The date that had been set for the event was not known outside of the Sophomore class. Any such knowledge as to its probable occurrence were rudely settled Wednesday morning when the new students awoke to find themselves initiated.

Their fathers led them to the gymnasium which had been previously prepared as a chamber of horrors and were judged them. These freshmen who had been turning out to practice rugby were held under suspended sentence, and the returned veterans were given the lightest possible degrees. For any who had incurred the wrath of the Sophomore class the penalties were in the extreme.

The most heinous crime that it was possible for the new students to commit, as it appeared from the sentences was to be seen talking to a member of the fair sex. Those that were found guilty of this charge were sentenced to the mysterious and dreaded third degree, which in this case proved to be the loss of their pen-pal.

The girls of the freshmen during the initiation and the subsequent stunts was striking in the extreme. Each one was forced to wear his pajamas under which he had his regular clothing. An orchestra was chosen from the pyjama club and the girls were entertained in the lounge with a dance.

Before the ordeal of the gymnasium, one of the university medical staff examined the students to make sure they could pull through the strain and in his judgment were not strong enough, were promptly acquitted. What these various ordeals proved to be none of the chastened freshmen seemed to be eager to relate. One of the most impressive stunts was the coloring of their hair bright pink by the administration of cochineal. The effect of over 200 pyjama-clad students, each with his face painted like an Indian warrior's and his hair a startling pink was startling.

In the afternoon, the new students were paraded through the main streets of the city. A block of autos had been reserved in one of the theatres and five hundred students took possession of them. The program on the stage was not interrupted by the presence of the roistering youths. After the theatre, a snail dance through the principal streets of the city concluded this day.

An Edmonton firm has been granted a license to establish and operate a wireless telegraph service between that city and the Port Norman oil fields. Orders have been placed for the necessary equipment. Wireless apparatus will also be installed on steamers plying on the northern waters.
